Mary and Mark Hurst
MONA VALE NSW (SYDNEY), AUSTRALIA

Mark and Mary Hurst have served with EMM since 1990, and as Mission Associates with Network since 2002.

In their new assignment, Mark and Mary will be Co-pastors for the Anabaptist Association of Australia and New Zealand (AAANZ), in Sydney, Australia. Their current term will begin August 1, 2009 and run through December 31, 2012. Their primary assignment responsibilities will be to:

- Nurture and support the Christian faith of individuals and groups in Australia and New Zealand who identify with the Anabaptist tradition.
- Network and link individuals, churches and groups of Christians who share a common Anabaptist understanding of the Christian faith.
- Provide religious services including teaching, training, pastoral care, mediation, and counsel to its members and others interested in the Anabaptist tradition.
- Provide resources and materials relating to the tradition, perspectives, and teaching of Anabaptists to both the Christian and general public.
- Convene conferences and gatherings that provide opportunity for worship, teaching, training, consultation, celebration, and prayer in the Anabaptist tradition.
- Extend the awareness of Anabaptism in Australia and New Zealand by assisting individuals, churches and groups to discover and express their links with the Anabaptist tradition.
- Provide an opportunity for affiliation for churches and groups who wish to be known in Australia and New Zealand as Anabaptists.
